ILLNESS DEVELOPS DURING A MEET

If, during a meet, a judge develops symptoms associated with Covid-19, they will report symptoms to the meet referee and will remove themselves from the meet for the remainder of the day. The judge should contact their health care provider by phone as recommended by the Center for Disease Control.

ILLNESS/EXPOSURE PRIOR TO A MEET

A judge should contact the assigner to initiate the sub process if any of the following circumstances extend into the 14 days prior to a meet assignment:

- Diagnosis of COVID-19
- Symptoms associated with COVID-19
- Contact with a person with confirmed/suspected COVID-19
- Instruction by a healthcare professional to self-isolate

Assigners will maintain confidentiality in regards to the need for a sub.

Meet referee should ensure that all judges sign EACH day of a meet. Take a picture and text or email to Linsey Hamilton: 651.442.9942 or linseyhamiltonpt@gmail.com
